

Client Assistance Program

Do You know about the Client Assistance Program (CAP)?

The West Virginia Advocates' CAP Program assists people with disabilities who:

- have applied for, or are receiving services from the West Virginia Division of Rehabilitation Services (WV-DRS), A Center for Independent Living (CIL), or other programs or services funded under the federal Rehabilitation Act.

CAP Staff Provide Advocacy Services Including:

- Education and Training
- Information and Referral
- Technical Assistance
- Problem Resolution
- Representation at Meetings, Mediations or Hearings
- Legal Representation

For more information about our services:

(800) 950-5250

www.wvadvocates.org